Arbitration in Vogue Instead of Battle, and Justice to Indians.

ARITHMETIC IS PROVING THE BIBLE

PEPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. BROOKLYN, September 8-The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., was welcomed home to-day by an overflowing congregation. At the opening of the service the hymn beginning, Welcome, sweet day of rest.

was sung with fine effect. Dr. Talmage's subject was: The Sunrise," and his text: "The day is at hand," Romans xiii., 12. He

Back from the mountains and the seaside, and the springs and the farmhouse, your cheek bronzed and your spirits lighted. I hail you home again with the words of Gehasi to the Shunamite: "Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child?"

Now that I have asked you in regard to your welfare, you naturally ask how I am. Very well, thank you. It was said that John Moffatt, the great Methodist preacher, occasionally got fast in his sermon, and to extricate himself would cry "Hallelujah!" I am in no such predicament to-day, but I am full of some rhapsodie ejaculation. Starting out this morning on a new ecclesigstical year, I want to give you the keynote of my next 12 months' ministry. I want to set it to the tune of Antioch, Ariel and Coronation. Some time ago we had a new stop put in this organ-a new trumpet stop-and I want to put a new trumpet stop

LAUGHTER AND CHRISTIANITY. . In all our Christian work you and I want more of the element of gladness. That man has no right to say that Christ never laughed. Do you suppose that he was glum at the wedding in Cana of Galilee? Do you suppose Christ was unresponsive when the children clambered over His knee and shoulder at His own invitation? Do you suppose that the evangelist meant nothing when he said of Christ: "He rejoiced in spirit?" Do you believe that the divine Christ who pours all the water over the rocks at Vernal falls, Yosemite, does not believe in the sparkle and gallop and tumultuous joy and rushing raptures of human life? I believe not only that the morning laughs, and that the mountains laugh, and that the seas laugh, and that the cascades laugh, but that Christ laughed, Moreover, take a laugh and a tear into an alembic, and assay them, and test them, and analyze them, and you will often find as much of the pure gold of religion in a laugh as in a tear. Deep apiritual joy always shows itself in facial illumination. John Wesley said he was sure of a good religious impression being produced because of what he calls the great laughter he saw among the people. Godless merriment is blasphemy anywhere, but ex-pression of Christian joy is appropriate

Moreover, the outlook of the world ought to stir us up to gladness. Astronomers re-cently disturbed many people by telling them that there is danger of stellar collision. We have been told through the papers by these astronomers that there are worlds coming very near together, and that we shall have plagues and wars and tumults and perhaps the world's destruction.

AN INCH BETTER THAN A MILE, rail tracks cross each other, and seen that by the movement of the switch one or two inches the train shoots this way and that, without colliding, then you may understand how 50 worlds may come within an inch of disaster, and that inch be as good as 1,000,000 miles. If a buman switch tender can shoot the trains this way and that without harm, cannot the hand that for thousands of years has upheld the universe keep our little world out of narm's way? Christian geologists tells us that this world was millions of years in building. Well, now, I do not think God would take millions of years to build a house which was to last only 6,000 years. There is nothing in the world or outside the world, terrestrial or astronomical, to excite dismay. I wish that some stout Gospel breeze might seatter all the malaria of

The first ray of the dawn I see in the gradual substitution of diplomatic skill for human butchery. Within the last 25 years there have been international differ which would have brought a shock of arms in any other day, but which were peacefully adjusted, the pen taking the place of the sword.

That Alabama question in any other age of the world would have caused war be-tween the United States and England. How was it settled? By men-of-war off the Narrows, or off the Mersey? By the Gulf stream of the ocean crossed by a gulf stream of human blood? By the pathway of nations incarnadined? No. A few wise men go into a quiet room at Geneva, talk the matter over, and telegraph to Washington and to London: "All settled." Peace. Peace. England pays to the United States the amount awarded—pays really more than she ought to have paid. But still, all that Alabama broil is settled-settled for-

ARBITRATION INSTEAD OF BATTLE. So, the quarrel eight or nine years ago about the Canadian fisheries in any other age would have caused war between the United States and England. England said: "Pay me for the invasion of my Canadian fisheries." The United States said: "I will not pay anything." Well, the two nations say: "I guess we had better leave the whole matter to a commission." The commission is appointed, and the commision examines the affair, and the commission reports, and pay we ought, pay we must, pay we do. Not a pound of powder burned, not a cartridge bitten off, no one hurt so much as by the scratch of a pin.

Arbitration instead of battle.

So the Samoan controversy in any other nge would have brought Germany and the United States into bloody collision. But all is settled. Arbitration instead of battle. France will never again, I think, through peccadillo of ambassador, bring on a battle with other nations. She sees that God, in punishment of Sedan, blotted out the French Empire, and the only aspirant for that throne who had any right of expectation dies in a war that has not even the dignity of being respectable. What is that blush on the cheek of England to-day? blush on the cheek of England to-day? What is the leaf that England would like to tear out of her history? The Zulu war. Down with the sword and up with the We in this country might better have settled our sectional difficulties by arbitra-tion than by the thrust of the sword. Phi-lanthropy said to the North: "Pay down a certain amount of money for the purchase of the slaves, and let all those born after a certain time be born free," Philanthropy at the same time said to the South: "You sell the slaves, and get rid of this great national contest and trouble." The North replied: "I won't pay a cent." The South replied: "I won't sell." War! war! A million dead men, and a national debt which might have ground this nation to think, in this country that arbitration is better than battle.

INSTEAD OF THE REBELLION. Why did we not let William H. Seward, of New York, and Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, go out and spend a few days

under the trees on the banks of the Potomao

I may be mistaken, but I hope that the last war between Christian nations is ended. Barbarians may mix their war paint, and Afghan and Zulu hurl poisoned arrows, but I think Christian nations have gradually learned that war is disaster to victor as well as vanquished, and that almost anything bought by blood is bought at too dear a price. I wish to God this nation might be a model of willingness for arbitration. No as vanquished, and that almost anything bought by blood is bought at too dear a price. I wish to God this nation might be a model of willingness for arbitration. No need of killing another Indian. No need of sacrificing any more brave General Custers. Stop exasperating the red man, and there will be no more arrows shot out from the reservation.

ters. Stop exasperating the red man, and there will be no more arrows shot out from the reservation. A general of the United States Army, in high repute throughout this land, and who, perhaps, has been in more Indian wars than any other officer, and who has been wounded again and again in behalf of our Government in battle against the Indians, told me that all the wars that had over coorneyed between Indians, and had ever occurred between Indians and white men had been provoked by white men, and that there was no exception to the While we are arbitrating with Christian nations, let us toward barbarians carry ourselves in a manner unprovocative

I inherit a large estate, and the waters are rich with fish, and the woods are song-ful with birds, and my cornfields are silken and golden. Here is my sister's grave. Out yonder, under that large tree, my father died. An invader comes, and proposes to drive me off and take possession of my property. He crowds me back, he crowds me on, and crowds me into a closer corner. and still closer corner, until after a while I say: "Stand back, don't crowd me any more, or I'll strike. What right have you to come here and drive me off of my premises? I got this farm from my father, and he got it from his father. What right have you to come here and molest me?"

DOES MIGHT MAKE RIGHT You blandly say: "Oh, I know more than you do. I belong to a higher civiliza-tion. I cut my hair shorter than you do. I could put this ground to a great deal bet-ter use than you do." And you keep crowding me back and crowding me on into closer corner and closer corner, until one day I look around upon my suffering family, and, fired by their hardships, I hew you in twain. Forthwith all the world comes to your funeral to pronounce eulogium, comes to my execution to anathematize me. You are the hero, I am the culprit, Be-hold the United States Government and the North American Indian. The red man has stood more wrongs than I would, or you. We would have struck sooner, deeper. That which is right in defense of a Brooklyn home or a New York home is right in defense of a home on top of the Bocky Moun-

Before this dwindling red race dies completely out, I wish that this generation might by common justice atone for the inhumanity of its predecessors. In the day of God's judgment I would rather there be a smeared Modoe than a swindling United States officer on an Indian reservation! One man was a barbarian and a savage, and never pretended to be anything but a barbarian and a savage. The other man pretended to be a representative of a Christian nation. Notwithstanding all this, the general disgust with war and the substitution of diplomatic skill for the glittering edge of keen steel is a sign unmistakable that "the day is at hand."

I find another ray of the dawn in the compression of the world's distances. What a slow, snail-like, almost impossible thing, would have been the world's rectification with 1,400,000,000 of population and no facile means of communication; but now, through telegraphy for the eye and tele-phonic intimacy for the ear, and through steamboating and railroading, the 25,000 Do not be scared. If you have ever stood at a railroad center, where 10 or 20 or 30 that a railroad center, where 10 or 20 or 30 kong is nearer to New York than a railroad center, and seen that Moscow, Madras, Melbourne within speak-ing distance. Purchase a telegraphic chart and by the blue lines see the telegraphs of the land, and-by the red lines the cables

SCIENCE AS AN EVANGEL.

You see what opportunity this is going to give for the final movements of Christian-ity. A fortress may be months or years in building, but after it is constructed it may do all its work in 20 minutes. Christianity has been planting its batteries for 19 centuries, and may go on in the work through other centuries; but when those batteries are thoroughly planted, those fortresses are fully built, they may all do their work in 24 hours. The world sometimes derides human foreboding. The sun rose this morning at about half past 5, and I think that is just about the hour in the world's history.

human foreboding. The sun rose this morning at about half past 5, and I think that is science any quicker? Did it not take science 5,652 years to find out so simple a thing as the circulation of the human blood? With the earth and sky full of electricity, science took 5,800 years before it even guessed that there was any practical use that might be made of this subtle and mighty element.

When good men take possession of all these scientific forces, and all these agencies of invention, I do not know that the re-demption of the world will be more than the work of half a day. Do we not read the Queen's speech at the proroguing of Parliament the day before in London? If that be so, is it anything marvelous to be-lieve that in 24 hours a divine communication can reach the whole earth?

Suppose Christ should descend on the nations-many expect that Christ will come among the nations personally—suppose that to-morrow morning the Son of God from a hovering cloud should descend upon these cities. Would not that fact be known all the world ever in 24 hours? Suppose he should present His gospel in a few words

"I am the Son of God; I came to pardon all your sins and to heal all your sorrow; to prove that I am a supernatural being, I have just descended from the clouds; do you believe Me, and do you believe Me

Why, all the telegraph stations of the earth would be crowded as none of them were ever crowded just after a shipwreck.

I tell you all these things to show you it is not among the impossibilities or even the improbabilities that Christ will conquer the whole earth, and do it instanter, when the time comes. There are foretokenings in the air. Something great is going to happen. I do not think that Jupiter is going to run us down, or that the axle of the world is going to break; but I mean something great tor the world's blessing and not for the world's damage is going to happen.

ENOUGH MISPORTUNES. I think the world has had it hard enough Enough, the London plagues. Enough, the Asiatic choleras. Enough, the wars. Enough, the shipwreeks. Enough, the conflagrations. I think our world could stand right well a procession of prosperities and triumphs. Better be on the lookout. Better have your observatories open toward the heavens, and the leuses of your most power ful telescopes well polished. Better have all your Leyden jars ready for some new pulsation of mighty influence. Better have new fonts of type in your printing offices to set up some astounding good news. Bette have some new banner that has never bee carried, ready for sudden processions. Better have the bells in your church towers $2.75. Better ones at $3.50, $4 and $5 up well hung, and rope within reach, that you | to finest. may ring out the marriage of the King's Cleanse all your court houses, for the Cleanse all your court bouses, for the Judge of all the earth may appear. Let all your legislative halls be guilded, for the great Law-giver may be about to come. Drive off the thrones of despotism all the occupants, for the King of heaven and earth may be about to reign. The darkness of the night is blooming and whitening into the lilies of morning cloud, and the lilies reddening into the roses of stronger day—fit reddening into the roses of stronger day—fit garlands, whether white or red, for Him on Whose head are many crowns. "The day is at hand!"

and talk the matter over, and settle it, as settle it they could, rather than the North pay in cost of war four billion seven hundred million dollars, and the South pay four billion seven hundred and fifty million dollars, the destroying angel leaving the first born dead in so many houses all the way from the Penobscot to the Alabama? Ye aged men, whose sons fell in the strife, do you not think that would have been better? Oh yes! we have come to believe, I think, in this country that arbitration is better than battle.

I may be mistaken, but I hope that the last war between Christian nations is ended. Barbarians may mix their war paint, and Afghan and Zulu hur! poisoned arrows, but sure he is going to get well, you sympathize with present pains, but all the foreboding is

Now I want to know whether we are com-ing on toward dismay, darkness and defeat, or on toward light and blessedness. You and I believe the latter, and if so, every year we spend is one year subtracted from the world's woe, and every event that passes, whether bright or dark, brings us one event nearer a happy consummation, and by all that is inexorable in chronology and mathe-mathics I commend you to good cheer and courage. If there is anything in arithmetic, if you subtract two from five and leave three, then by every rolling sun we are coming on toward a magnificent terminus. Put your algebra down on the top of your Bible and rejoice.

If it is nearer morning at 3 o'clock than it is at 2, if it is nearer morning at 4 o'clock than it is at 3, then we are nearer the dawn of the world's deliverance. God's clock seems to go very slowly, but the pendulum swings and the hands move, and it will yet atrike noon. The sun and the moon stood still once; they will never stand still again until they stop forever. If you believe arithmetic as well as your Bible, you must believe we are nearer the dawn. "The day is at hand.'

There is a class of phenomena which makes me think that the spiritual and the heavenly world may, after a while, make a demonstration in this world which will bring all moral and spiritual things to a climar. Now, I am no spfritualist; but every intelligent man has noticed that there are strange and mysterious things which in-dicate to him that perhaps the spiritual world is not so far off as sometimes we con-jecture, and that after a while, from the spiritual and heavenly world there may be a demonstration upon our world for its bet-terment. We call it magnetism, or we call it mesmerism, or we call it electricity, because we want some term to cover up our ignorance. I do not know what that is. I never heard an audible voice from the other world. I am persuaded of this, how-ever: that the veil between this world and the next is getting thinner and thinner, and that perhaps after a while, at the call of God—not at the call of the Davespert brothers, or Andrew Jackson Davis-som of the old scriptural warriers, some of the spirits of other days mighty for God—a Joshua, or a Caleb, or a David, or a Paul—may come down and help us in this battle against unrighteousness. Oh, how I would like to have them here—him of the Red Sea, him of the valley of Ajalon, him of Mars Hill.

A SPLENDID ILLUSTRATION. History says that Robert Clayton, the English cavalry, at the close of a war bought up all the old cavalry horses lest they be turned out to drudgery and hard work, and bought a piece of ground at Naversmire heath and turned these old war horses into the thickest and richest pasture to spend the rest of their days for what they had done in other days. One day a thunder storm came up, and these war horses mistook the thunder of the skies for the thunder of battle, and they wheeled into line—no riders on their backs—they wheeled into line ready for the fray. And I doubt me whether, when the last thunder of this battle for God and truth goes booming through the heavens, the old into the fight and exchange crown for helmet, and palm branch for weapon, and come down out of the King's galleries into the arena, crying: "Make room! I must fight in this great Armageddon."

My beloved people, I preach this sermon because I want you to toil with the sunlight in your faces. Brother! brother! all I am afraid of is, not that Christ will lose the bettle but thet you and I will not get into battle, but that you and I will not get into it quick enough to do something worthy of our blood-bought immortality. Oh, Christ! how shall I meet Thee, Thou of the sacred brow and the scarred back and the scarred hand and the scarred foot and the scarred breast, if I have no scars or wounds gotten in Thy service? It shall not be so. I step out to-day in front of the battle. Come on, you toes of God, I dare you to combat. Come on, with pens dipped in malignancy. Come on, with tongues lorked and viperine and adderous. Come on, with types scaked in the scum of the eternal pit. I defy you! Come on! I bare my brow, I uncover my heart. Strike! I cannot see my Lord until I have been hurt for Christ.

If we do not suffer with Him on earth w cannot glorify with Him in heaven. Take good heart. On! On! On! See! the skies have brightened! See! the hour is about to come! Pick out all the cheeriest of the anthems. Let the orchestra string their best

INGREASE AND MUL

IS A RULE CHARACTERISTIC OF

and RULERS KAUFMANNS' BUSINESS

Things are never stationary here-never stagnant, but moving ahead continuously. We're building up trade every day-trade that'll stay with us. It's easy to do it with our methods. The people of Pittsburg-NOT THEY ALONE, but those living in the country, within a radius of 100 miles from Pittsburg-they all know that our business methods are broad gauge and as liberal as can be. No light too strong no eye too scrutinizing for Kaufmanns' way of building trade. In what platform can you find a stronger plank than this: BRING BACK WHAT YOU BUY OF US, IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH YOUR PURCHASE; your money back as cheerfully as we receive it. So don't miss your chance and buy NO SOUABBLING, NO PROTEST, like in some of the stores. We can't help but talk sometimes about our way of doing things, but enough particularly in our Boys' Clothing Department. Many a lad we've fitted for school the past few days-many for schools here at home, some for schools far away. Won't the little fellows be proud of the dressy things from Kaufmanns' when they mingle with friends at school? We'll not say much about prices to-day-only want to remind parents once more of these FINE ALL-WOOL SCOTCH CHEVIOT SHORT-PANT SUITS AT $3 50, AND A CAP TO MATCH FREE WITH EVERY SUIT. They come in magnificent Scotch effects, and there is nothing better or more durable for school wear than these very suits. Other clothiers ask from $5 to $7 for them. Remember, a cap to match will be presented with each one of these suits.

but there are enough pretty and by us are perfect beauties-marvels elegant styles to suit the tastes of of the tailor's art. They come the most particular and fastidious silk and serge lined, long or short gentlemen. Suits in imported and cut, Prince Charles, Sack or Endomestic materials-as fine in qual- glish box style, the latter with or ity, as faultiess in make and as per- without back seam. These grand fect in fit as any merchant tailor garments in all colors, shades and can make. The prices range from designs, and prices ranging from $15 to $25.

Our stock is not quite ready yet, The new styles thus far received $6 to $27. Look at them.

Dress Shirts.

Our perfect fitting White Dress Shirts are worn by everybody desirous of having good, fine, durable, faultlessly fitting shirt. No ripping open of seams here, no buttons bursting off, no button holes tearing out no edges of bosom or neck and cuff bands getting ragged, no bosoms bulging out as though you carried a water melon in front of your chest. All these unpleasant features are done away with by wearing our matchless Dress Shirts. Special attention is called to our celebrated (open front and back) Manhattan White Shirts at $1. These shirts are retailed by all first-class Furnishing Goods dealers for $1 50.

BEAUTIFUL FALL NECKWEAR.

All the very latest styles of Teck, Puff, Four-in-hand, String and Bow ties at unequaled low prices. We make a specialty of Fisk, Clark & Flagg's goods.
